Tips for Reporting Delivery Issues
Please remember to use use the form on the MALA website rather than emailing Linda or other MALA staff. This allows for efficient tracking. http://www.malalibraries.org/courier-service/courier-delivery-service-report-form/

And remember to report in a timely manner - not too close to your normal delivery time - give it an hour or two in case of traffic delays - but please try to report the same day or by the next morning. This allows us time to contact Henry to follow up with your courier.

MALAPro Webinars

MALAPro is our new online platform where webinars and new content is housed.New this year, you'll need a membership to access the online content and to receive discounted rates to webinars. And please note that simply being on MALA's courier service is NOT a membership to MALAPro. You can still attend webinars and programs but will pay the non-member rate.

The current content in our 'online training' area, including the State of Missouri Library webinars, are still available for viewing (and without a password). Please note that MALAPro is not supported by the LSTA grant and membership fees help us to fund the new platform and offer professional presenters.

MALAPro will offer you deep discounts to webinars as well as two FREE networking webinars each year. And you'll have access to all past webinars for free.
